DRAMA NOW!

Drama Now! is a full-day drama ministry seminar. Participants will learn:

- Performance basics and how to teach them to others
- Acting exercises that make learning practical and fun
- Creative ideas for utilizing drama in worship and ministry
- How to find and create scripts
- Tips for creating an effective creative ministry team

Drama Now! is excellent training for those involved in church drama and more! It's for anyone desiring to be a better, more creative communicator including: Actors, Directors, Worship Leaders, Pastors, Teachers, and Youth Leaders. Drama Now! is the answer to "How do we start a church drama ministry?" If you already have an established drama ministry in your church, Drama Now! will help take it to the next level!

Chuck Neighbors has over 30 years of professional theatre experience as an actor, director, and writer. He has toured his one-man shows throughout North America as well as abroad. His most popular one-man drama, an adaptation of Charles Sheldon's Christian classic, In His Steps, has been featured on both radio and television. Chuck is an award-winning playwright whose published works include his best-selling What Would Jesus Do?, The Comfort Zone, In the Moment (Lillenas Publishing), and Power Plays (Baker Books). He has written numerous magazine articles on the arts and worship and has practical experience working with the local church in developing drama ministries that work!

DRAMA NOW! REVIEWS

Comments from participants:

“Chuck was incredibly engaging... I felt as if he was on our level and not some high and mighty speaker.”

“Thank you for a most informative, educational, and outrageously funny seminar!”

“What I really appreciated is that you spoke to the needs of both the novice and the veteran actor.”

“Excellent! Entertaining, engaging, and informative. Your ability to relate, convey, and inspire to the entire group is quite commendable.”

“I came prepared to sit in a corner and watch, so I was taken aback to find myself participating and enjoying it!”

“Every member of our group enjoyed it, from our teens to our 79-year-old.”

“A great day! I appreciated that you covered each area both from an actor’s perspective and from the director’s perspective.”

“Never a dull moment!”
